Cooley

Daniel Ergas

Associate

dergas@cooley.com

Supreme Court and Appellate

+1 202 776 2212

Washington, DC

Daniel is an experienced litigator and strategic advisor. As an associate in Cooley's Supreme Court and appellate practice, he represents clients in high-stakes litigation, with a focus on appellate matters.

Before joining Cooley, Daniel clerked for Chief Justice John G. Roberts, Jr., of the US Supreme Court, Chief Judge Jeffrey S. Sutton of the US Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit, and Judge Paul A. Engelmayer of the US District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Daniel graduated magna cum laude from Harvard Law School. While there, he served as notes chair of the Harvard Law Review and won the Ames Moot Court Competition. Before law school, Daniel graduated with first-class honors from the University of Sydney and spent a year as a Provost's Scholar at Worcester College in the University of Oxford.

Education

Harvard Law School JD, magna cum laude

Worcester College, University of Oxford Provost's Scholar

The University of Sydney BA, first-class honors

Admissions & Credentials

Admitted to practice in New York only

Not admitted to practice in Washington, DC

Supervised by active members of the Washington, DC Bar