Cooley

Alexandra Eber

Special Counsel

+1 202 842 7800

Washington, DC

White Collar Defense and Investigations
Securities Litigation + Enforcement
Commercial Litigation
State Attorneys General

Alexandra concentrates her practice on complex commercial and securities litigation, white collar defense and internal investigations. She has experience representing corporations, financial institutions, and individuals facing investigations from a variety of state and federal government entities, as well as investigating self-identified issues and whistleblower complaints. She also handles a wide variety of commercial and securities litigation matters in both state and federal courts.

Alexandra maintains an active pro bono practice.

Education

University of California, Berkeley, School of Law JD, 2014

Occidental College BA, magna cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, 2011

Admissions & Credentials

New York

District of Columbia

Texas