

Emily Lee

Associate

elee@cooley.com

+1 650 843 5383

Palo Alto

Emerging Companies

Venture Capital

Capital Markets

Mergers and Acquisitions

Emily Lee practices general corporate and securities law, with an emphasis on representing emerging growth companies, venture capital funds and public companies.

While in law school, Emily advised startups through the Donald Pritzker Entrepreneurship Law Center and interned at Stripe Inc. and the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago. She also served as a co-president of the Asian Pacific American Law Student Association and was an associate editor of the Northwestern Journal of Technology and Intellectual Property.

Prior to law school, Emily taught middle school exceptional children in Oxford, North Carolina.

Education

Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law
JD, cum laude, 2020

Duke University
BA, Public Policy and English, highest distinction, 2014

Admissions & Credentials

California