

Anne Bigler

Associate

abigler@cooley.com

Commercial Litigation

Securities Litigation + Enforcement

+1 212 479 6883

New York

Anne maintains a broad practice focusing on complex commercial disputes across a variety of subject matters – including general commercial, securities and trade secrets litigation. She also represents individuals and companies in internal investigations and government investigations carried out by entities including the Department of Justice and the Securities and Exchange Commission. In addition, Anne maintains an active pro bono practice focused on criminal defense and protection of civil rights.

Education

University of Virginia School of Law
JD, 2021

Boston College
BA, Political Science, Phi Beta Kappa, summa cum laude, 2018

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Court Admissions

Supreme Court of the State of New York, Appellate Division

US District Court for the Southern District of New York