Kester draws on more than 23 years of experience, guiding his middle-market private equity and strategic clients in M&A and divestitures. Known for his work in matters involving technology, software and intellectual property, he has represented highly regarded private equity clients and their portfolio companies in numerous high-profile US and cross-border leveraged buyouts and financial restructurings.

Outside of technology, Kester has led significant deals in the infrastructure services, healthcare, consumer goods and cannabis industries. As lead adviser, Kester guides clients throughout all phases of transactions, from establishing an efficient transaction process and structure, to documentation and negotiation, and finally to closing and integration.

Kester's recent representations include Albertsons Companies, Bertram Capital, CAI Capital Partners, Enhanced Healthcare Partners, Halifax Capital Partners, Lee Equity Partners, Main Post Partners, PharmaCann, Prospect Partners, Rubicon Technology Partners, Schwazze (aka Medicine Man Technologies) and Wynnchurch Capital.

Kester also has an active pro bono practice focused on immigration, entrepreneurship, education and empowerment.
