

Bomin Kim

Associate

bkim@cooley.com

+1 212 479 6377

New York

Technology Transactions

Intellectual Property

Cyber/Data/Privacy

Intellectual Property Litigation

Bomin Kim focuses her practice on the technology and intellectual property aspects of corporate transactions. She has experience structuring and negotiating complex technology-related commercial transactions focusing on intellectual property. She also assists clients with various transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, strategic investments, and public offering activities. She has experience in all stages of patent litigation involving a variety of technologies, including hardware, medical devices, pharmaceuticals, and computer systems.

Education

Georgetown University Law Center JD, 2018

University of Pennsylvania BSE, Electrical and Electronic Engineering, Dean's List, 2014

Admissions & Credentials

New York

District of Columbia

US Patent and Trademark Office