

John Schlenz

eDiscovery Review Attorney

jschlenz@cooley.com

eDiscovery and Information Retention Counseling

+1 202 962 8329

Washington, DC

John supports clients in matters involving complex eDiscovery across litigation subject matters including antitrust, securities class actions, intellectual property and employment. He also assists clients during internal investigations and government inquiries arising from government agencies, including the US Securities and Exchange Commission and the US Department of Justice.

Before joining Cooley, John was a staff attorney for a global law firm and served as a Global Positioning System (GPS) Mission Controller at Lockheed Martin.

Education

George Mason University, Antonin Scalia Law School JD, 1997

Santa Clara University BS, 1984

Admissions & Credentials

District of Columbia