Cooley

Daniel Moses

Associate

dmoses@cooley.com

+1 310 883 6492

Santa Monica

Emerging Companies
Venture Capital
Capital Markets
Mergers and Acquisitions
Pro Bono

Daniel advises private and public companies at all stages of growth on corporate matters.

Before joining Cooley, Daniel advised startups across the country on how to win and manage funding from the federal Small Business Innovation and Research (SBIR) and Small Business Technology Transfer (STTR) programs. His law practice is informed by his prior experiences working with small businesses, emerging companies and university-affiliated companies on business strategy, as well as his background in teaching entrepreneurship to college students and professionals.

Education

Harvard Law School JD, 2024

University of Oklahoma MA, International and Area Studies, concentration in Economic Development, 2016

University of Oklahoma BA, International and Area Studies, summa cum laude, 2015

Admissions & Credentials

California

Rankings & Accolades

Co-founder and director of the Oklahoma Catalyst Programs, winner of the 2020 US Small Business Administration’s Tibbets Award for best-in-class support to startups applying for funding from the federal SBIR and STTR programs

Speaker at the State Science & Technology Institute’s 2019 Annual Conference in Providence, Rhode Island

Judge for the Commission for Environmental Cooperation’s 2019 Youth Innovation Challenge

Program manager for one of The Princeton Review's Top 25 schools for entrepreneurship in 2017

2016 recipient of the Thomas W. Adams Best Paper Award for MA thesis on conflict resolution

2011 Gates Millennium Scholar