Cooley

Rebecca Wainstein

Private Equity Resource Attorney

rwainstein@cooley.com

+1 212 479 6209

New York

Private Equity
Mergers and Acquisitions
Corporate Governance and Securities Regulation

Rebecca advises and supports Cooley's private equity practice group on current issues and developments in mergers and acquisitions, including corporate governance, regulatory updates and market trends in the private equity space. She also leads innovation and knowledge management initiatives, developing new practice resources and brainstorming ways to deliver better, faster and more efficient legal services to the firm's clients.

Before joining Cooley, Rebecca practiced corporate law at two other Am Law 100-ranked, US-based international law firms and one of Canada's top corporate international firms, focusing on mid-market private equity transactions and venture capital deals for private equity sponsor clients.

Publications:

Co-author, "New HSR Premerger Notification Requirements: Implications for Private Equity Clients," Cooley alert, November 7, 2024

Education

University of Toronto Faculty of Law JD, 2013

University of Toronto – Rotman School of Management MBA, 2013

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Ontario, Canada