Cooley

Alyssa Wright

Associate

alyssa.wright@cooley.com

+1 212 479 6270

New York

White Collar Defense and Investigations
Commercial Litigation
Pro Bono

Alyssa represents clients in complex commercial disputes and high-stakes government and internal investigations. She also maintains an active pro bono practice.

Alyssa previously served as an Honors Attorney in the Civil Rights Division of the US Department of Justice (DOJ), where she worked on cases involving police misconduct, prison conditions and reproductive healthcare access. She was a recipient of the 2024 Assistant Attorney General's Distinguished Service Award. Before her time at DOJ, she clerked for Judge Gershwin A. Drain of the US District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan.

During law school, Alyssa participated in the International Human Rights and Conflict Resolution Clinic and completed internships at the San Diego Juvenile Public Defender and Hadsell Stormer Renick & Dai, a civil rights law firm. She also worked with the Southern Center for Human Rights, where she successfully advocated for the release of her client before the Alabama Bureau of Pardons and Paroles.

Education

Stanford Law School JD

Stanford University BA, Communication

Admissions & Credentials

California

District of Columbia

New York

Court Admissions

US Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit

US Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit

US District Court for the Central District of California

US District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan

US District Court for the Eastern District of New York

US District Court for the Southern District of New York

Memberships & Affiliations

American Bar Association (ABA)