Sara focuses her practice on EU competition law. She advises clients on merger control, foreign investment reviews, foreign subsidies regulation (FSR), antitrust and EU cartel investigations. She has experience steering multijurisdictional merger control proceedings in complex cross-border transactions before the European Commission and competition authorities across Asia, Europe, the Middle East and Africa. Sara also advises on state aid and distribution matters at the EU level.

Before joining Cooley, Sara gained competition law experience at an international law firm in Brussels and completed internships at international and national law firms in Paris, advising on competition law and litigation matters.
