Cooley

Christopher Andrews

Partner

candrews@cooley.com

+1 212 479 6862

New York

Commercial Litigation
Securities Litigation + Enforcement

Chris represents clients in a broad range of complex commercial litigation, including class actions and other high-stakes matters. He has extensive experience litigating consumer class actions, securities class actions, M&A and shareholder disputes, and breach of contract matters. Chris has represented public and private companies and individuals in state and federal courts throughout the US. He maintains an active pro bono practice.

Representative matters:

- A major telecommunications company, several officers and directors in securities litigation and derivative litigation
- Various public medical device companies, several officers and directors in securities fraud actions
- An online pharmacy company and CEO in a post-acquisition dispute with investors
- A mobile technology accessory company in Section 220 litigation
- A venture capital firm in litigation relating to a contract dispute

Clerkship

- Judge Gershwin A. Drain, US District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan

Presentations

- Panelist, “Current Developments in Federal Civil Practice 2026,” PLI-NYC, Live Webcast, June 10, 2026
- Panelist, “Specialized Deposition Techniques 2026”, PLI-NYC, New York, NY, May 14, 2026

Education

Cornell Law School JD, 2015

Yale University BA, Political Science, 2009

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Court Admissions

US Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit

US District Court for the Eastern District of New York

US District Court for the Southern District of New York

US District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan

Memberships & Affiliations

American Bar Association, Young Lawyers Division