

Christopher Andrews

Associate

candrews@cooley.com

Commercial Litigation

Securities Litigation + Enforcement

+1 212 479 6862

New York

Chris Andrews represents clients in a broad range of complex commercial litigation and investigations, with a particular focus on securities litigation and derivative litigation. Chris has represented public and private companies, venture capital firms, and individuals in state and federal courts throughout the US. Chris maintains an active pro bono practice.

Representative Matters

- Represent a major telecommunications company, several officers and directors in securities litigation and derivative litigation
- Represent various public medical device companies, several officers and directors in securities fraud actions
- Represent an online pharmacy company in a securities fraud action
- Represent a mobile technology accessory company in Section 220 litigation
- Represent a cybersecurity fraud and prevention services company in a Rule 2004 investigation in its Chapter 11
- Represent a venture capital firm in litigation relating to a contract dispute

Clerkship

- United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, The Honorable Gershwin A. Drain

Education

Cornell Law School

JD, 2015

Yale University

BA, Political Science, 2009

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Court Admissions

US Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit

US District Court for the Eastern District of New York

US District Court for the Southern District of New York

US District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan

Memberships & Affiliations

American Bar Association, Young Lawyers Division