Cooley

Madison (JJ) Meng

Associate

jmeng@cooley.com

+1 415 693 2461

San Francisco

Capital Markets
Technology
Life Sciences and Healthcare

Asia

JJ represents underwriters and public and private companies in capital markets and corporate transactions, including initial public offerings (IPOs), other equity offerings, and high-yield, investment-grade and convertible debt offerings. She has represented a variety of financial institutions and issuers, including life sciences, tech and real estate companies. JJ also advises companies regarding general corporate governance and securities matters.

Before joining Cooley, JJ was a capital markets associate in the Hong Kong office of a Chicago-based global law firm, where her practice focused on Hong Kong-registered IPOs and debt offerings pursuant to Regulation 144A and Regulation S. While with that firm, JJ was seconded to Ant Group (commonly known as Alipay), where she worked on corporate and commercial transactions involving digital mobile payments, merchant acquiring, payment processing and cross-border settlement, and regulatory matters related to payment services.

Representative equity transactions:

- Akero Therapeutics' $403 million follow-on offering*
- Viking Therapeutics' $633 million follow-on offering*
- Boundless Bio's $100 million IPO*
- Apogee Therapeutics' upsized $345 million IPO*
- Neumora Therapeutics' $250 million IPO
- Grindr's special purpose acquisition company (SPAC) merger with Tiga Acquisition
- FIGS' $398.3 million follow-on offering*
- Shanghai Henlius Biotech's $410 million IPO*†

Representative debt and private placement transactions:

- Ascendis Pharma's $575 million convertible senior notes offering*
- Ventyx Biosciences' $100 million private placement*
- Haidilao International Holding's $600 million debut investment-grade debt offering†
- CAR's $250 million high-yield debt offering and 400-million-renminbi high-yield debt offering*†
- Geely Automobile Holdings' $800 million investment-grade debt offering†
- Anton Oilfield Services Group's $250 million senior notes offering†

* Underwriter/initial purchaser representation
† Representation handled before joining Cooley

Education

Boston College Law School JD, 2011

Purdue University BS, 2007

Admissions & Credentials

New York

California