Gene is a litigator and strategic advisor. As an associate in Cooley's Supreme Court and appellate practice group, he represents clients in high-stakes litigation, with a particular focus on public law and appellate matters.

Gene clerked for Judge Cornelia T.L. Pillard of the US Court of Appeals for the DC Circuit and Chief Judge David J. Barron of the US Court of Appeals for the First Circuit. In law school, Gene served as a member of the Board of Student Advisers and as executive editor of the Harvard International Law Journal. He also served as a student attorney in the Veterans Law and Disability Benefits Clinic.

Before joining Cooley, Gene worked as a management consultant at a global consulting firm, where he advised private- and public-sector clients on strategic challenges.
