

Andrew Mace

Special Counsel

amace@cooley.com

Intellectual Property Litigation
Intellectual Property

+1 650 843 5808

Palo Alto

Andrew is a special counsel in the intellectual property litigation practice group. His practice focuses on patent litigation and post-grant proceedings at the US Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO), primarily inter partes review.

Andrew has been involved in more than 175 post-grant proceedings at the USPTO since 2014 and has been recognized as a top petitioner attorney at the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB). He has successfully challenged patents involving a wide range of computer technologies – including networking, web and hypermedia, database, search, user interface, advertising, imaging, augmented and virtual reality, and mobile.

Before law school, Andrew co-founded and served as director of technology for a startup to adapt educational content to the Apple iPod and iPhone.

Published articles

- Author, “TRIPS, eBay, and Denials of Injunctive Relief: Is Article 31 Compliance Everything?,” Columbia Law School Science and Technology Law Review, May 15, 2009

Education

Columbia Law School

JD, Harlan Fiske Stone Scholar, staff editor for the Columbia Science and Technology Law , 2009

Duke University

AB, Biology, Computer Science minor, 2002

Admissions & Credentials

California

New York

United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

Court Admissions

US Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit

US District Court for the Northern District of California

US District Court for the Southern District of California

US District Court for the Central District of California

US District Court for the Eastern District of California

US District Court for the Southern District of New York