Cooley

Supreet Sandhu

Patent Technical Advisor

ssandhu@cooley.com

Intellectual Property

+1 206 452 8838

Seattle

Supreet focuses on patent drafting and prosecution for software and data-driven technologies utilizing her strong background in computer science and software engineering. Prior to entering the legal field, she worked as a software engineer at PACCAR, where she contributed to the development of enterprise sales software applications, giving her practical insight into real-world innovation. Supreet holds a Bachelor of Science in computer science with a minor in data science and a Master of Science in computer science, positioning her to effectively support clients across a range of technology sectors.

Education

Arizona State University MS, Computer Science, 2025

Seattle University BS, Computer Science, minor in Data Science, undergraduate valedictorian, Archbishop G. Raymond Hunthausen Award recipient, 2023