Cooley

Bill Boyle

Paralegal Specialist

boylewj@cooley.com

+1 650 843 5591

Palo Alto

Emerging Companies

Venture Capital

William J. Boyle is a senior paralegal in the securities regulation group and a member of the Cooley business department. He joined Cooley in 1995 and is resident in the Palo Alto office.

William specializes in corporate and securities law, working with both emerging companies and public companies. His experience includes venture capital financings, public offerings, SEC compliance, corporate maintenance and mergers and acquisitions.

He received his paralegal certificate from San Francisco State University in 1996 and received an Associate of Arts degree from San Francisco City College in 1995. He is a member of the Paralegal Association of Santa Clara County.

Education

San Francisco State University PLCERT, 1996

City College of San Francisco AA, 1995

Admissions & Credentials

Registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO)

Memberships & Affiliations

Paralegal Association of Santa Clara County