Ziwei's practice focuses on securities litigation and complex commercial litigation. She frequently represents companies, as well as their officers and directors, in securities class actions, shareholder derivative suits, government and internal investigations, and commercial disputes.

Ziwei assists clients with all aspects of litigation – from prelitigation management through motion practice, discovery and appeal. She also advises clients on minimizing litigation exposure, particularly on matters related to corporate governance, risk disclosure and regulator inquiries.

Ziwei is a trusted advisor to clients spanning global markets and various industries, particularly US-listed Chinese companies and US companies that operate in China. She is highly skilled in navigating challenges specific to cross-border disputes and providing culturally savvy advice on legal matters.
