

Caroline Vu

Special Counsel

cvu@cooley.com

Life Sciences Corporate Partnering and Licensing Biotechnology

+1 650 843 5712

Palo Alto

Caroline Vu's practice is directed on the representation of public and private biotechnology and pharmaceutical companies, in a variety of transactions, particularly those relating to strategic relationships for the research, development and commercialization of novel products and technologies.

Prior to rejoining Cooley, Caroline served as senior counsel at Exelixis and Jazz Pharmaceuticals, where she advised operational and management teams on various legal and regulatory issues relating to drug research, development and commercialization, and negotiated a wide range of business and research contracts, including agreements for domestic and international clinical trials, research collaborations, licensing, drug supply and vendor services. Caroline began her legal career as an associate in Cooley's Life Sciences practice group in 2004.

Education

University of California at Davis King Hall School of Law
JD, 2004

Yale University
MPH, 2000

University of Southern California
BS, Biological Sciences, 1998

Admissions & Credentials

California