

Katia MacNeill

Special Counsel

kmacneill@cooley.com

Fund Formation

Venture Capital

+1 415 693 2095

San Francisco

Katia MacNeill is a special counsel in the fund formation practice group. Her practice focuses on the formation and representation of private equity and venture capital funds, including representation of issuers and venture capital funds in private financing transactions. She also advises registered investment advisers on regulatory and compliance matters.

Prior to joining Cooley, Katia was an associate for almost four years at Seward & Kissel in New York.

Education

University of Pennsylvania Law School

JD, 2010

Johns Hopkins University

BA, International Studies, 2005

Admissions & Credentials

California

New York

Pennsylvania