Cooley

Katie Retzbach

Associate

kretzbach@cooley.com

+1 202 776 2262

Washington, DC

CFIUS
Export Controls and Economic Sanctions
National Security
Foreign Direct Investment
CooleyREG
Private Equity
Mergers and Acquisitions

Katie advises companies on regulatory compliance issues regarding international trade and export controls. She helps clients navigate trade and sanctions issues as well as the process of securing national security clearance from the Committee on Foreign Investment in the United States (CFIUS).

Katie has represented public and private companies, private equity firms, and strategic investors in a range of transactions, including mergers, acquisitions, divestitures and other general corporate matters.

Education

Duke University School of Law JD, 2024

University of Alabama BS, Commerce and Business Administration, summa cum laude, 2021

University of Alabama BA, Political Science, summa cum laude, 2021

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Not admitted to practice in Washington, DC

Supervised by active members of the Washington, DC Bar