Cooley

Adam Silow

Associate

asilow@cooley.com

+1 212 479 6163

New York

Commercial Litigation
White Collar Defense and Investigations
Artificial Intelligence
Cyber/Data/Privacy
Pro Bono

Adam represents and advises clients on cross-border regulatory matters, investigations and complex commercial litigation. He has experience with matters involving artificial intelligence (AI), cybersecurity, data privacy, economic sanctions, and import and export controls. His pro bono work spans individual and class action representation in federal and state courts, as well as international human rights advocacy.

Before joining Cooley, Adam clerked for Judge William F. Kuntz II of the US District Court for the Eastern District of New York. He also worked as an associate in the New York office of an international law firm.

During law school, Adam interned with the US Senate Committee on Foreign Relations and the US Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of New York.

Education

Georgetown University Law Center JD, 2022

Georgetown University Master of Science, Foreign Service, 2022

Barrett, The Honors College at Arizona State University BS, Economics, 2016

Barrett, The Honors College at Arizona State University BA, Global Studies, 2016

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Court Admissions

US District Court for the Southern District of New York

US District Court for the Eastern District of New York