Rodrigo Seira

Partner

rseira@cooley.com

+1 206 452 8832

Miami
New York

Emerging Companies

Fintech and Payments
Blockchain Technology and Tokenization
Venture Capital

Rodrigo provides practical advice to a broad range of privately held and publicly traded companies through their corporate life cycle, with a focus on those building at the frontier of technology. He also represents funds and strategic investors in connection with investments and acquisitions.

One of the nation's leading lawyers at the intersection of securities law and digital assets, Rodrigo has helped shape the evolving regulatory framework for crypto in the US – testifying before Congress and regularly engaging with regulators.

Before joining Cooley, Rodrigo served in-house at a leading fund investing in crypto and other frontier technologies.

Education

Harvard Law School JD, 2016

Middlebury College BA, Philosophy and Political Science, cum laude, 2011

Admissions & Credentials

Florida

Washington

New York