

Alexis Dye

Associate

adye@cooley.com

+1 310 883 6408

Santa Monica

Emerging Companies
Corporate Governance and Securities Regulation
Venture Capital
Mergers and Acquisitions

Alexis advises private and public companies at all stages of growth on corporate matters.

While in law school, Alexis co-founded the Stanford Law Start-Up Project, a student organization dedicated to educating and connecting law students, lawyers and professionals in the startup ecosystem. She was also awarded the W. A. Franke Fellowship in Global Business Law and served as a managing editor of the Stanford Journal of Law, Economics & Business.

Alexis studied Rhetoric at the University of California, Berkeley, where she was nominated for the University Medal (valedictorian candidate).

Before law school, she worked as a corporate paralegal at Cooley.

Education

Stanford Law School JD, 2025

University of California, Berkeley BA, Rhetoric, highest distinction, 2019

Admissions & Credentials

California

Memberships & Affiliations

Phi Beta Kappa