January 24, 2012

On January 24, 2012, the Federal Trade Commission announced its annual modifications to the Hart-Scott-Rodino (HSR) Act thresholds. The thresholds, which impact both triggers for filing requirements and filing fee tiers, are adjusted annually for changes in GNP. They are expected to be published in the Federal Register shortly and will take effect 30 days after publication.

The HSR Act requires parties to notify the Federal Trade Commission and Department of Justice when a deal meets specified thresholds and no exemption applies. If notification is required, the parties cannot close while the statutory waiting period runs and the agencies review the transaction. Most commonly, a filing is required if the parties meet both the "size of person" and "size of transaction" thresholds, which will be modified by the new thresholds to be:

Size-of-Person Test: met if one company has over $136.4 million in annual sales or total assets and the other company has over $13.6 million in annual sales or total assets.

Size-of-Transaction Test: met if, as a result of the transaction, the buyer will hold voting securities or assets, including voting securities currently held in the seller and assets recently acquired from the seller, valued in excess of $68.2 million.

All threshold changes are summarized in the chart below.
