Cooley

Jessica Fisher

Deputy General Counsel

jfisher@cooley.com

+1 212 479 6844

New York

Jessica advises the firm on legal and ethical matters, AI governance, risk management and third-party engagements.

Jessica has extensive experience advising Fortune 100 leadership on technology and supply chain governance and transformation, AI adoption, internal and government investigations, enforcement actions and end-to-end crisis management. Her experience also includes defending corporations and individuals before the Department of Justice, Securities and Exchange Commission, Commodity Futures Trading Commission and state attorneys general, as well as litigating in federal and state courts.

Before joining Cooley, Jessica was an executive at a multinational technology company. Jessica started her career as a litigation associate at an international law firm.

Jessica served as a law clerk to Judge Katherine Polk Failla of the US District Court for the Southern District of New York.

Education

New York Law School JD, magna cum laude, John Marshall Harlem Scholar, 2009

Tufts University BA, Political Science, cum laude, 2005

Admissions & Credentials

New York

Court Admissions

US District Court for the Southern District of New York

US District Court for the Eastern District of New York