Jason is an experienced corporate and securities lawyer who has spent close to 25 years working with public and private companies on a wide range of transactional and counseling related matters. For his public company clients, Jason handles public offerings and other complex securities transactions, Board and corporate governance advice, SEC reporting and disclosure issues and compliance matters. In addition, Jason is an expert in venture financings, mergers and acquisitions, employment and compensation arrangements and matters involving early-stage stakeholders and shareholders, and he regularly acts as the outside corporate counsel for his clients. Jason prides himself on the ability to deliver highly sophisticated advice in a pragmatic, business-oriented way that advances his clients' objectives. He is deeply committed to client service and strives to build long-term trusted relationships with the companies he represents, many of which he has worked with for well over a decade.
