

Viviana Andazola Marquez

Associate

vandazolamarquez@cooley.com

+1 213 725 9235

Los Angeles

Trials

White Collar Defense and Investigations

Fintech and Payments

Securities Litigation + Enforcement

Cyber/Data/Privacy

Blockchain Technology and Tokenization

Commercial Litigation

Viviana focuses on white-collar criminal and government enforcement defense, as well as complex civil litigation. With an emphasis on trial work, she has represented clients facing federal criminal charges through verdict involving novel theories of liability. She also has experience conducting internal investigations arising from investigations by the Securities and Exchange Commission and US Department of Justice.

Education

Stanford Law School JD, 2022

Yale University BA, Ethnicity, Race, and Migration, with distinction, 2018

Admissions & Credentials

California

Court Admissions

US Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit

US District Court for the Central District of California

US District Court for the Northern District of California