

Eric Steiner

Paralegal Specialist

esteiner@cooley.com

+1 415 693 2509

San Francisco

Eric Steiner is a paralegal specialist in Cooley's business department. He focuses on corporate and securities law and concentrates his practice on securities transactions and public company compliance matters. His experience includes a range of corporate and securities matters, including public offerings, venture capital financings, M&A, corporate maintenance and Securities and Exchange Commission compliance.

Prior to joining Cooley in 1995, Eric was managing paralegal for ITT Federal Bank, where he worked in the area of banking regulations. He was a paralegal at the San Francisco law firm of Howard, Rice, Nemerovski, Canady, Falk & Rabkin for six years, where he focused on corporate and securities matters.

Education

University of California, Davis BA, International Relations