

Cristina Lombardi

Associate

clombardi@cooley.com

Mergers and Acquisitions
Shareholder Activism

+1 212 479 6894

New York

Cristina's practice focuses on corporate and transactional matters, principally related to mergers & acquisitions. She represents public and private clients – including strategic and financial buyers and sellers – across a wide variety of industries and in connection with complex corporate transactions, as well as general corporate matters. Her practice also includes advising clients with respect to shareholder activism and corporate governance matters.

Cristina's representative transactions include advising:

- IAA in its sale to Ritchie Bros. in a $7.3 billion cross-border stock and cash transaction and related shareholder activism defense matters, including IAA's cooperation agreement with Ancora Advisors and Ritchie Bros.' concurrent $500 million investment from Starboard
- Nutrafol in its sale to Unilever
- NeoPhotonics in its sale to Lumentum for $918 million
- Sol de Janeiro in its sale to L'Occitane Group for $450 million
- TCGplayer in its up to $295 million sale to eBay
- Jazz Pharmaceuticals in its divestiture of its Sunosi product business

Education

Fordham University School of Law
JD, 2021

Villanova University
MA, 2015

Villanova University
BA, 2014

Admissions & Credentials

New York