

Gregg Rader

Associate

grader@cooley.com

Tax

+1 212 479 6497

New York

Gregg advises public and private companies on complex tax planning in domestic and cross-border transactions, including M&A, joint ventures, restructurings and financing arrangements. Before joining Cooley, Gregg worked as tax associate at a global law firm and also served as a law clerk to Vice Chancellor Lori Will of the Delaware Court of Chancery.

Gregg's representative matters include:

- Represented X.AI Holdings in its $250 billion acquisition by Space X*
- Represented X.AI Holdings in the $113 billion business combination of X.AI Corp. and X Holdings Corp.*
- Represented Newcrest Mining in its $16.8 billion acquisition by Newmont Corporation*
- Represented Aon in its $13.4 billion acquisition of NFP Corp.*
- Represented Pinnacle Financial Partners in its $8.6 billion merger with Synovus Financial*
- Represented the special committee of EchoStar in EchoStar's $6 billion acquisition of DISH Network*
- Represented Lundin Mining in its $4.5 billion acquisition of Filo Mining*
- Represented Gildan Activewear in its $4.4 billion acquisition of Hanesbrands*
- Represented FirstBank Holdings in its $4.2 billion acquisition by PNC Financial Services Group*
- Represented SoftBank Group in its $4 billion acquisition of DigitalBridge Group*
- Represented Baxter International in the $3.8 billion divestiture of its kidney-care business (Vantive) to The Carlyle Group*
- Represented X.AI Holdings in its $20 billion Series E capital raise and GPU infrastructure equipment and facility leasing transactions valued at more than $10 billion*
- Represented Tishman Speyer in connection with its $3.5 billion refinancing of the Rockefeller Center*

* Representation handled prior to joining Cooley

Education

Harvard Law School JD, cum laude, Dean's Scholar Prize (Corporations; Secured Transactions; Accounting), 2021

University of Tennessee BSBA, summa cum laude, Top College of Business Administration Graduate, 2013

Admissions & Credentials

New York