Steven focuses his practice on advising both public and private companies and investors across South and Southeast Asia on strategic transactions and corporate governance.

Steven is counsel to companies across a broad range of industries and ranging from start-ups to well established companies. He is passionate about the "bits & atoms" Life Sciences, AgTech, DeepTech and CleanTech ecosystem in Southeast Asia and diversifying the new economy ecosystem.

Steven has significant experience in private financings, IPOs, deSPAC transactions, crossover rounds, follow-on offerings, debt financing rights issues and ongoing securities law compliance with expertise in introducing regional companies to international markets. He also advises venture capital and private equity funds and investment banking firms in connection with financings.

Prior to joining Cooley, Steven worked in the Singapore and London offices of Milbank and Shearman & Sterling, respectively.
