Sabrina plays a key role in managing relationships with Cooley's clients and friends. She manages numerous Cooley-hosted events and external partnerships, including the firm's Capital Call series and the mid-Atlantic Mindshare and DCGC organizations. She and her operations team also manage the firm's Executive Connect platform, which matches executive talent in Cooley's network to employment opportunities with the firm's clients and friends. Sabrina has worked in various roles throughout the firm and has been based in Cooley's San Francisco, San Diego, Reston and Santa Monica offices during her tenure.

Sabrina is an entrepreneur who has started two companies in the tech support and travel sectors. She is a Screen Actors Guild-American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (SAG-AFTRA) actress and director and was previously a director of music for schools, churches and community theater productions.
