Acquiring and Protecting Federal Student Aid Funds

Patricia Dickerson is a senior manager of higher education services, with specific responsibility for matters relating to the management and administration of the federal Title IV student financial aid programs.

Prior to joining the firm, she was a senior executive in Federal Student Aid, the US Department of Education office responsible for the administration of the Title IV student aid programs, serving directly under the Chief Compliance Office as a Team Director and Chairperson of the Peer Review Board. She was a member of the Department's professional staff for over 40 years and has experience in virtually every aspect of the management and administration of the multi billion dollar federal student aid program.
