Experience matters – but so does how you work with people. Tracey partners with clients and colleagues to deliver thoughtful, reliable support grounded in trust, clarity and collaboration.

Building strong relationships is at the heart of her work. Whether mentoring colleagues, collaborating with teammates or supporting clients, Tracey values clear communication, trust and a shared commitment to excellent outcomes.

With more than 30 years of business and legal experience, Tracey brings a steady hand, thoughtful judgment and a collaborative spirit to every engagement.

Her career has been shaped by challenging roles, allowing her to integrate legal, financial and operational perspectives in practical and effective ways.

Tracey is adaptable, highly organized and comfortable managing multiple priorities with clarity and accountability. She enjoys the variety that comes with supporting a range of matters and special projects – and takes pride in being someone others can rely on.
