Xenia Chiu focuses her practice on venture capital and growth equity transactions, private equity transactions, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and other corporate matters. She advises startups and emerging growth companies at all stages of their corporate lifecycles, including initial company formation, day-to-day corporate governance matters, early and late stage venture financings and exit opportunities such as mergers and acquisitions. She also represents venture capital and private equity investors in financing transactions in the U.S. and Asia.

Prior to joining Cooley and relocating to Singapore, Xenia was an associate at the Chicago office of an international law firm where she represented strategic and financial buyers and sellers in public and private acquisitions as well as counseled public companies on corporate governance matters.

Xenia Chu is a native English speaker, fluent in reading and writing Chinese, and also fluent in speaking Cantonese.

Representative Matters:
