Belen practices at the intersection of communications, regulation, tech and space law, helping clients comply with state and federal regulations. Her experience with governmental, corporate and nonprofit entities allows her to navigate complex issues in tech and telecommunications. She also advises clients on licensing, regulatory compliance and policy issues related to satellite operations and space communications.

Belen's regulatory practice focuses on a range of communications issues, as well as state telecommunications and Federal Communications Commission (FCC) compliance. She also assists clients with FCC investigations, transactional due diligence and various advocacy strategies.

Belen is currently serving her second term as co-chair of the women's leadership committee for the Federal Communications Bar Association – The Tech Bar.
