Cooley

Rachel Staub

Associate

rstaub@cooley.com

+1 858 550 6927

San Diego

Capital Markets
Corporate Governance and Securities Regulation
Life Sciences and Healthcare

Rachel advises issuers and banks on various securities transactions, including initial public offerings, secondary and follow-on offerings, private placements, and convertible debt offerings. She also advises public companies on reporting requirements, stock exchange compliance and various other corporate governance matters.

Before joining Cooley, Rachel worked at another US-based international law firm.

Education

University of Virginia School of Law JD, 2020

University of California, Los Angeles BA, Political Science, summa cum laude, 2016

Admissions & Credentials

California